

DATA PRIVACY STATEMENT

We, Mcomm Touristic Services, are pleased that you have chosen to visit this website. In a continuous effort to improve the attractiveness of this website for you, we are constantly optimising the site's functions and services. Security is always our first concern. For you, using our web services means sharing your personal data with us. We appreciate the trust placed in us. That is why we handle your data with particular care. The term "personal data" is defined in the European Data Protection Act. Our safety procedures are regularly reviewed and adapted to technological advances.

General information:

When you call up our website, various information will be transmitted, such as the IP address, type and version of the web browser used, the operating system used, the origin website and the time of the request. We are unable to use this data to identify individual users. The information is simply evaluated by us on a statistical level and is only used to improve the attractiveness, content and functions of our website. If it is possible to enter personal or business data within the internet offering (e-mail addresses, names, addresses) this data is disclosed by the user on an expressly voluntary basis. Insofar as technically possible and reasonable, it is possible use and pay for all the services offered without providing such data or by using anonymized data or a pseudonym.

Cookies:

We use cookies for statistical evaluation purposes. Cookies are files that can be placed on your computer's hard drive to make navigation easier. This means that you don't have to enter all the data required for use every time you visit the site. Cookies also help us to tailor our website to your specific needs, e.g. your national language or preferred areas of interest. If you do not want this, you simply need to activate the decline cookies option in your browser. Most browsers accept cookies automatically but allow you to decline cookies or to display a warning before saving them. To find out how this works, please consult the instructions for your browser. You can delete cookies already set on your computer at any time. However, if you do not accept cookies, this can restrict the functions available on our site.

Google Analytics:

This website uses Google Analytics, a web analysis service of Google Inc. ("Google"). Google Analytics uses so-called "cookies", text files that are stored on your computer and that make it possible to analyze the way you use the website. As a rule, the information generated by the cookie about your use of this website is transmitted to a Google server in the USA and stored there. If you activate IP anonymization on this website, however, your IP address will be abbreviated by Google within Member States of the European Union or in other states that are party to the Agreement on the European Economic Zone. The full IP address is only sent to a Google server in the US and abbreviated there in exceptional circumstances. Acting on behalf of the operator of this website, Google will use this information to evaluate your use of the website, to compile reports on website activity and to provide the website operator with services relating to website use and Internet use. The IP address transmitted by your browser in the context of Google Analytics will not be combined with other data from Google. You can prevent cookies from being saved by making the appropriate setting in your browser software, however be advised that this may mean that you will be unable to use all the functions of this website in full. In addition, you can also prevent the transmission of the data generated by the cookie in relation to your use of the website (including your IP address) to Google and the processing of this data by Google by downloading and installing the browser plug-in available at the following link (<http://tools.google.com/dlpage/gaoptout?hl=de>). Alternatively, you can prevent data from being recorded by Google Analytics by clicking the following link. An opt-out cookie will be set that prevents your data from being recorded during any future visit to this website. Deactivate Google Analytics). The opt-out cookie only applies for this browser and this domain. If you delete your cookies in this browser, you will have to click this link again. You will find further information about this at tools.google.com/dlpage/gaoptout or at www.google.de/intl/de/policies/ (general information about Google Analytics and data protection). You will find further information at www.google.com/privacy/privacy-policy.html

Google Tag Manager:

This website uses Google Tag Manager. Google Tag Manager is a solution that allows marketed website tags to be managed using an interface. The Tag Manager tool itself (which implements the tags) is a cookie-less domain and does not register personal data. The tool causes other tags to be activated which may, for their part, register data under certain circumstances. Google Tag Manager does not access this information. If recording has been deactivated on domain or cookie level, this setting will remain in place for all tracking tags implemented with Google Tag Manager.

Social Media

Mcomm Touristic Services uses Social Media such as Twitter, Facebook and Instagram for promotional purposes. No data from these services are automatically recorded in the systems of Mcomm Touristic Services

Social media buttons

On our website buttons are included to promote web pages to "like" or "tweet" on social networks like Facebook and Twitter. These buttons work through pieces of code that come from Facebook and Twitter itself. Cookies are placed through this code. We have no influence on that. Read the privacy statement of Facebook and Twitter (which can change regularly) to read what they do with your (personal) data that they process via these cookies.

The information they collect is anonymized as much as possible. The information is transferred to and through Twitter, Facebook, Google +, Pinterest and LinkedIn on servers located in and outside the EU. LinkedIn, Twitter, Facebook and Google + adhere to the Safe Harbor principles and are affiliated with the Safe Harbor program of the US Department of Commerce. This means that there is an appropriate level of protection for the processing of any personal data.
